Stewardship Reflection

"…whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers, you did for me." – MATTHEW 25:40

Most of us are generous when it's convenient for us. We are generous when we have the time or the money. But real generosity is the opposite of that. It means giving of one's time, money, compassion, forgiveness, or mercy when it's not convenient for us, when it's not on our schedule, but on the other person's timeline.

Solemnity of Christ the King

"Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." (Matthew 25:40) Christ, the King of kings, calls us to serve Him through our care for others. Every vocation, priesthood, consecrated life, or holy matrimony is an opportunity to answer His call by loving and serving those in need. How is God inviting you to live out this service in your life, bringing Christ's mercy and compassion to the world? Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at (330) 744-8451 or via email at vocations@youngstowndiocese.org.

RETIREMENT FUND FOR RELIGIOUS

They gave their lives in service—now, they need our help. For decades, sisters, brothers, and religious order priests taught, prayed, and cared for those in need. Many now face retirement with little savings. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious ensures vital support for health care and daily living—so they can age with dignity. Please give generously today—either through the parish collection or online at retiredreligious.org.

The St. Angela Merici Novena begins next Sunday, November 29th, following the Mass, and runs until Sunday, January 24th. Please join us in prayer after Mass.

As We Journey Together, May Christ Light Our Way

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Psalmist invites us to sing today: "The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want". This is the feast of Christ the King.

The Prophet Ezekiel reminds us that the Lord God is our true shepherd. He wants to lead and care for us, but do we want to hear his voice and follow him? Sometimes we don't want to follow him. We want to go our own direction – often to our peril.

St. Paul reminds us that we have been saved, but to live in the Lord's life requires that we follow him and remain in relation to him. The dangers of sin can weaken and separate us from him.

The selection from St. Matthew is the clearest description of salvation and damnation. Do we live the life of Christ and look for him in the people around us? If we do, we will treat those around us as brothers and sisters in Christ. If we do not, we will ignore those around us, and we will fail to love them or even think about them. The consequences are life and salvation or death and damnation.

Join us for Mass on Thanksgiving at 8:30 am at St. Angela, or at St. Patrick or the Cathedral at 10:30 am – have a safe and enjoyable Thanksgiving!

I invite each of us to prayerfully consider how we can help each other respond joyfully to the Lord's invitation to the Kingdom and to work in this world for the good of all. As we approach Thanksgiving, please be generous to the work of the Church with your time, talent, and treasure.

Please keep our OCIA group of inquirers in prayer as we meet to pray, study, and reflect on the Lord's call to become members of the Catholic Church.

Please be assured of my daily prayers for you as I celebrate Mass each day.

Sincerely in Christ,
Msgr. Robert J. Siffrin

PS Thank you to everyone who has pledged to participate in the Annual Appeal! If you have not yet pledged, please do so and be as generous as you can. We are currently at 50% of our goal! If you have not pledged, please help us support the work of Catholic Charities and the work of the Bishop!
